

GLOBAL 1HN AGM AGENDA

MARCH 22 (Day 1)

Network Review

9:00-9:05: Welcome

9:05-9:15: Highlights from the co-leads

9:15-9:20: Governance in Information and Surveillance Systems (REP1) report (including questions for clarification)

9:20-9:25: Governance in Prevention and Control Programs (REP2)

9:25-9:30: Institutionalization (REP3)

9:30-9:35: Equity in Governance Issues (REP4)

Start of Structured Thematic Discussions

9:40-9:45: Overview of how this hour will proceed

9:45-9:55: Global One Health mapping exercise results and implications for Network (Arne)

9:55-10:45: Structured thematic discussions - new One Health ideas that would cut across REPs and disciplines

Members are placed into 4 separate breakout rooms. Each breakout room discusses the same 3 trigger questions:

- Where do we see the potential of new research that crosses the REPs and disciplines to forward a One Health agenda?
- Critical knowledge and implementation gaps
- Potential for researchable questions

10:40 -10:55: Gather in plenary to hear reports from each group. Identify ideas for further brainstorming and possible proposal or paper discussions

10:55-11:00: Members sign up for next day for either of following options:

- Working Group on one or two of the brainstormed themes
- Working Group on potential IDRC proposal (to support One Health research on emerging epidemic threats)
- Working Group on a special collection on 'One Health and the global governance of infectious diseases and AMR'

MARCH 23 (Day 2)

9:00-9:05: Welcome and review of agenda

9:05-9:20 Sonar-Global (European Network) presents its work

9:20-11:00: Break out into WGs from Day 1

MARCH 24 (Day 3)

9:00-9:30: WGs report back

9:30-10:00: Knowledge-user session

- Knowledge-users share: what gaps they see; opinions on directions we're taking; what can they do with what they've heard at AGM; advice on future directions.

10:00 -10:15 unfinished business and questions from Days 1 and 2

10:15-11:00: Develop critical paths – how to collaborate going forward